

I forgot!! I need to be kissed often.
And well.

Date last night was like, girls deserve to turn their brains off once in a while, you shouldn't have to worry about anything, you should be taken care of. And it felt kind of misogynistic tbh but fuck fuck fuck fuck I want to be taken care of

I get all my romance from my friendships, now I
just need someone
to buy me dinner.

I noticed you
opening your notes
app when I told you
what my favorite
flower is.

I do the same thing.

[redacted] fave is starburst
yellow and pink is fave

[redacted] loves peonies

Will you be sweet to me?

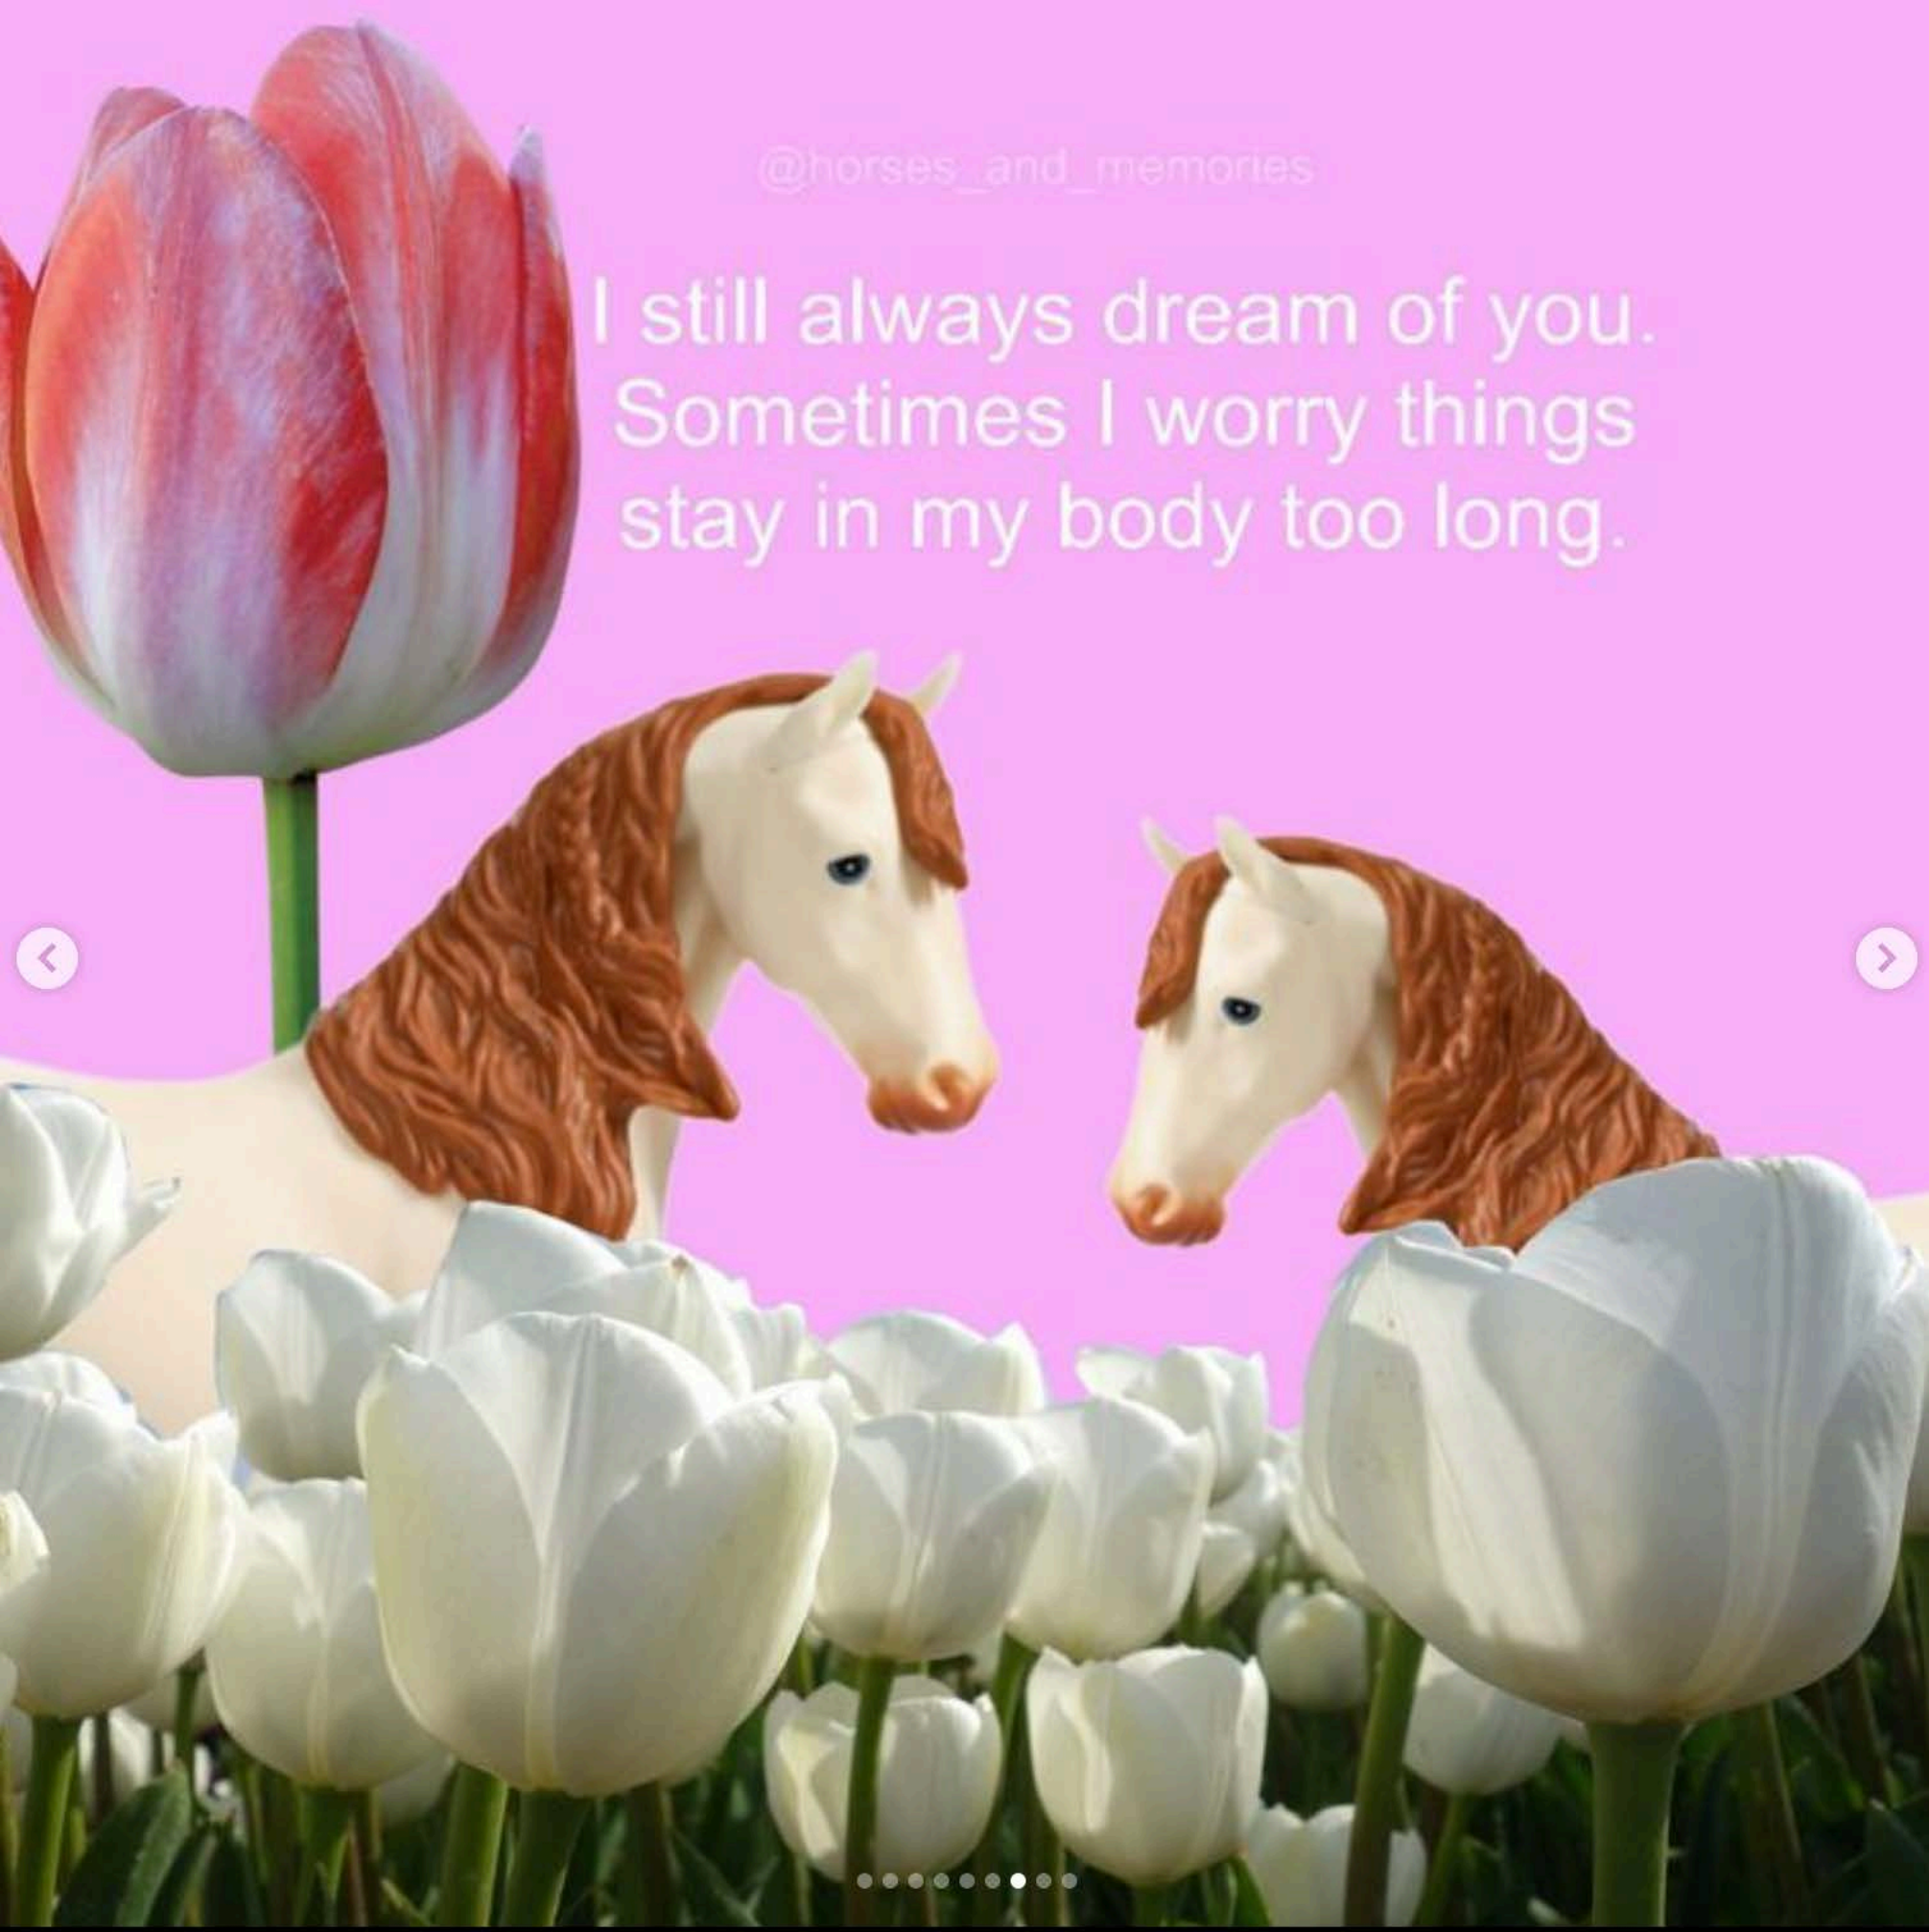

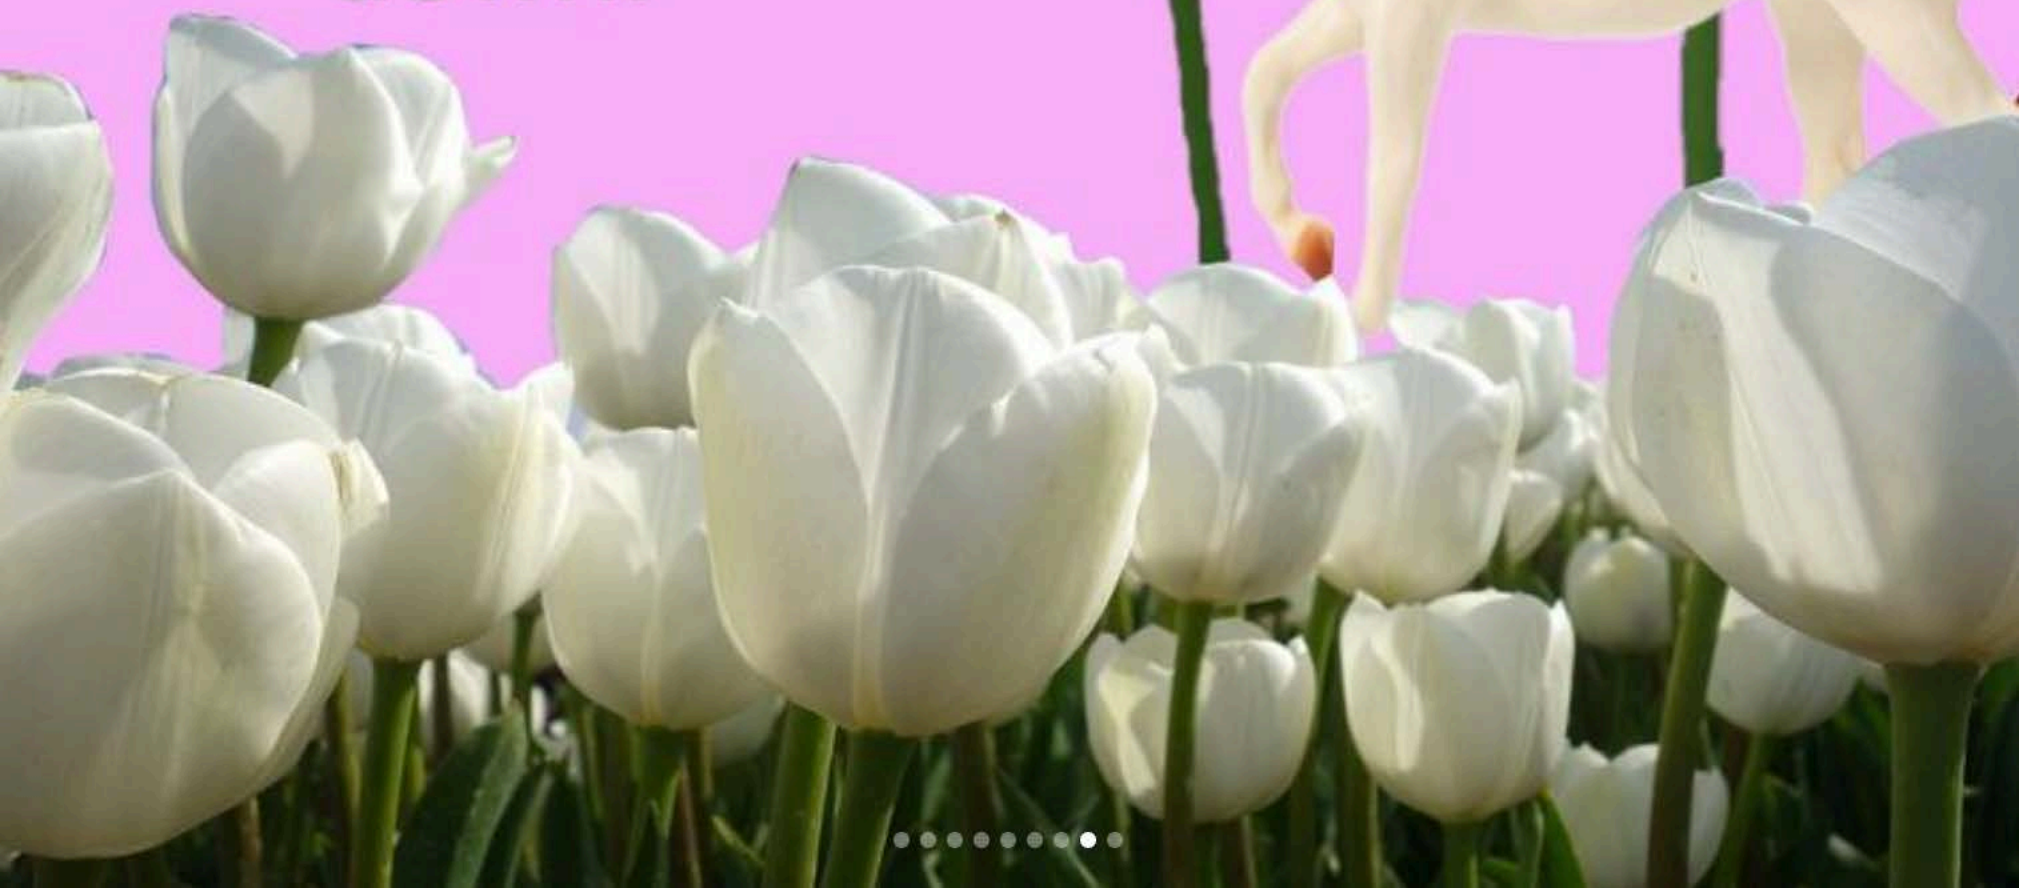

I still always dream
of you.

@horses_and_memories

I still always dream of you.
Sometimes I worry things stay in my body too long.

I need to stop
falling in love
with every person who says
hold on, that was a good line, I need to write that down.

I need to do my
laundry.
