

Do you understand what I'm creating?

I've been thinking recently that my peripheral vision isn't good enough

How are you

I've been having weird dreams

I've been thinking recently that my peripheral vision isn't good enough

Is this what I want

There's a boy on the train asking his friend;
record me record me
and then the girl starts recording and he goes, Justin, you're my best friend in the whole world, and I really hope you come visit for spring break.

Sometimes the boys profess love for one another
That boy is interacting with some subway strangers now
Oop he's down man down

why r u writing down
random peoples
conversations?

I'm an artist.
