

Can ants feel pain?

I don't know. I think so,

Is it a sin to kill ants too?

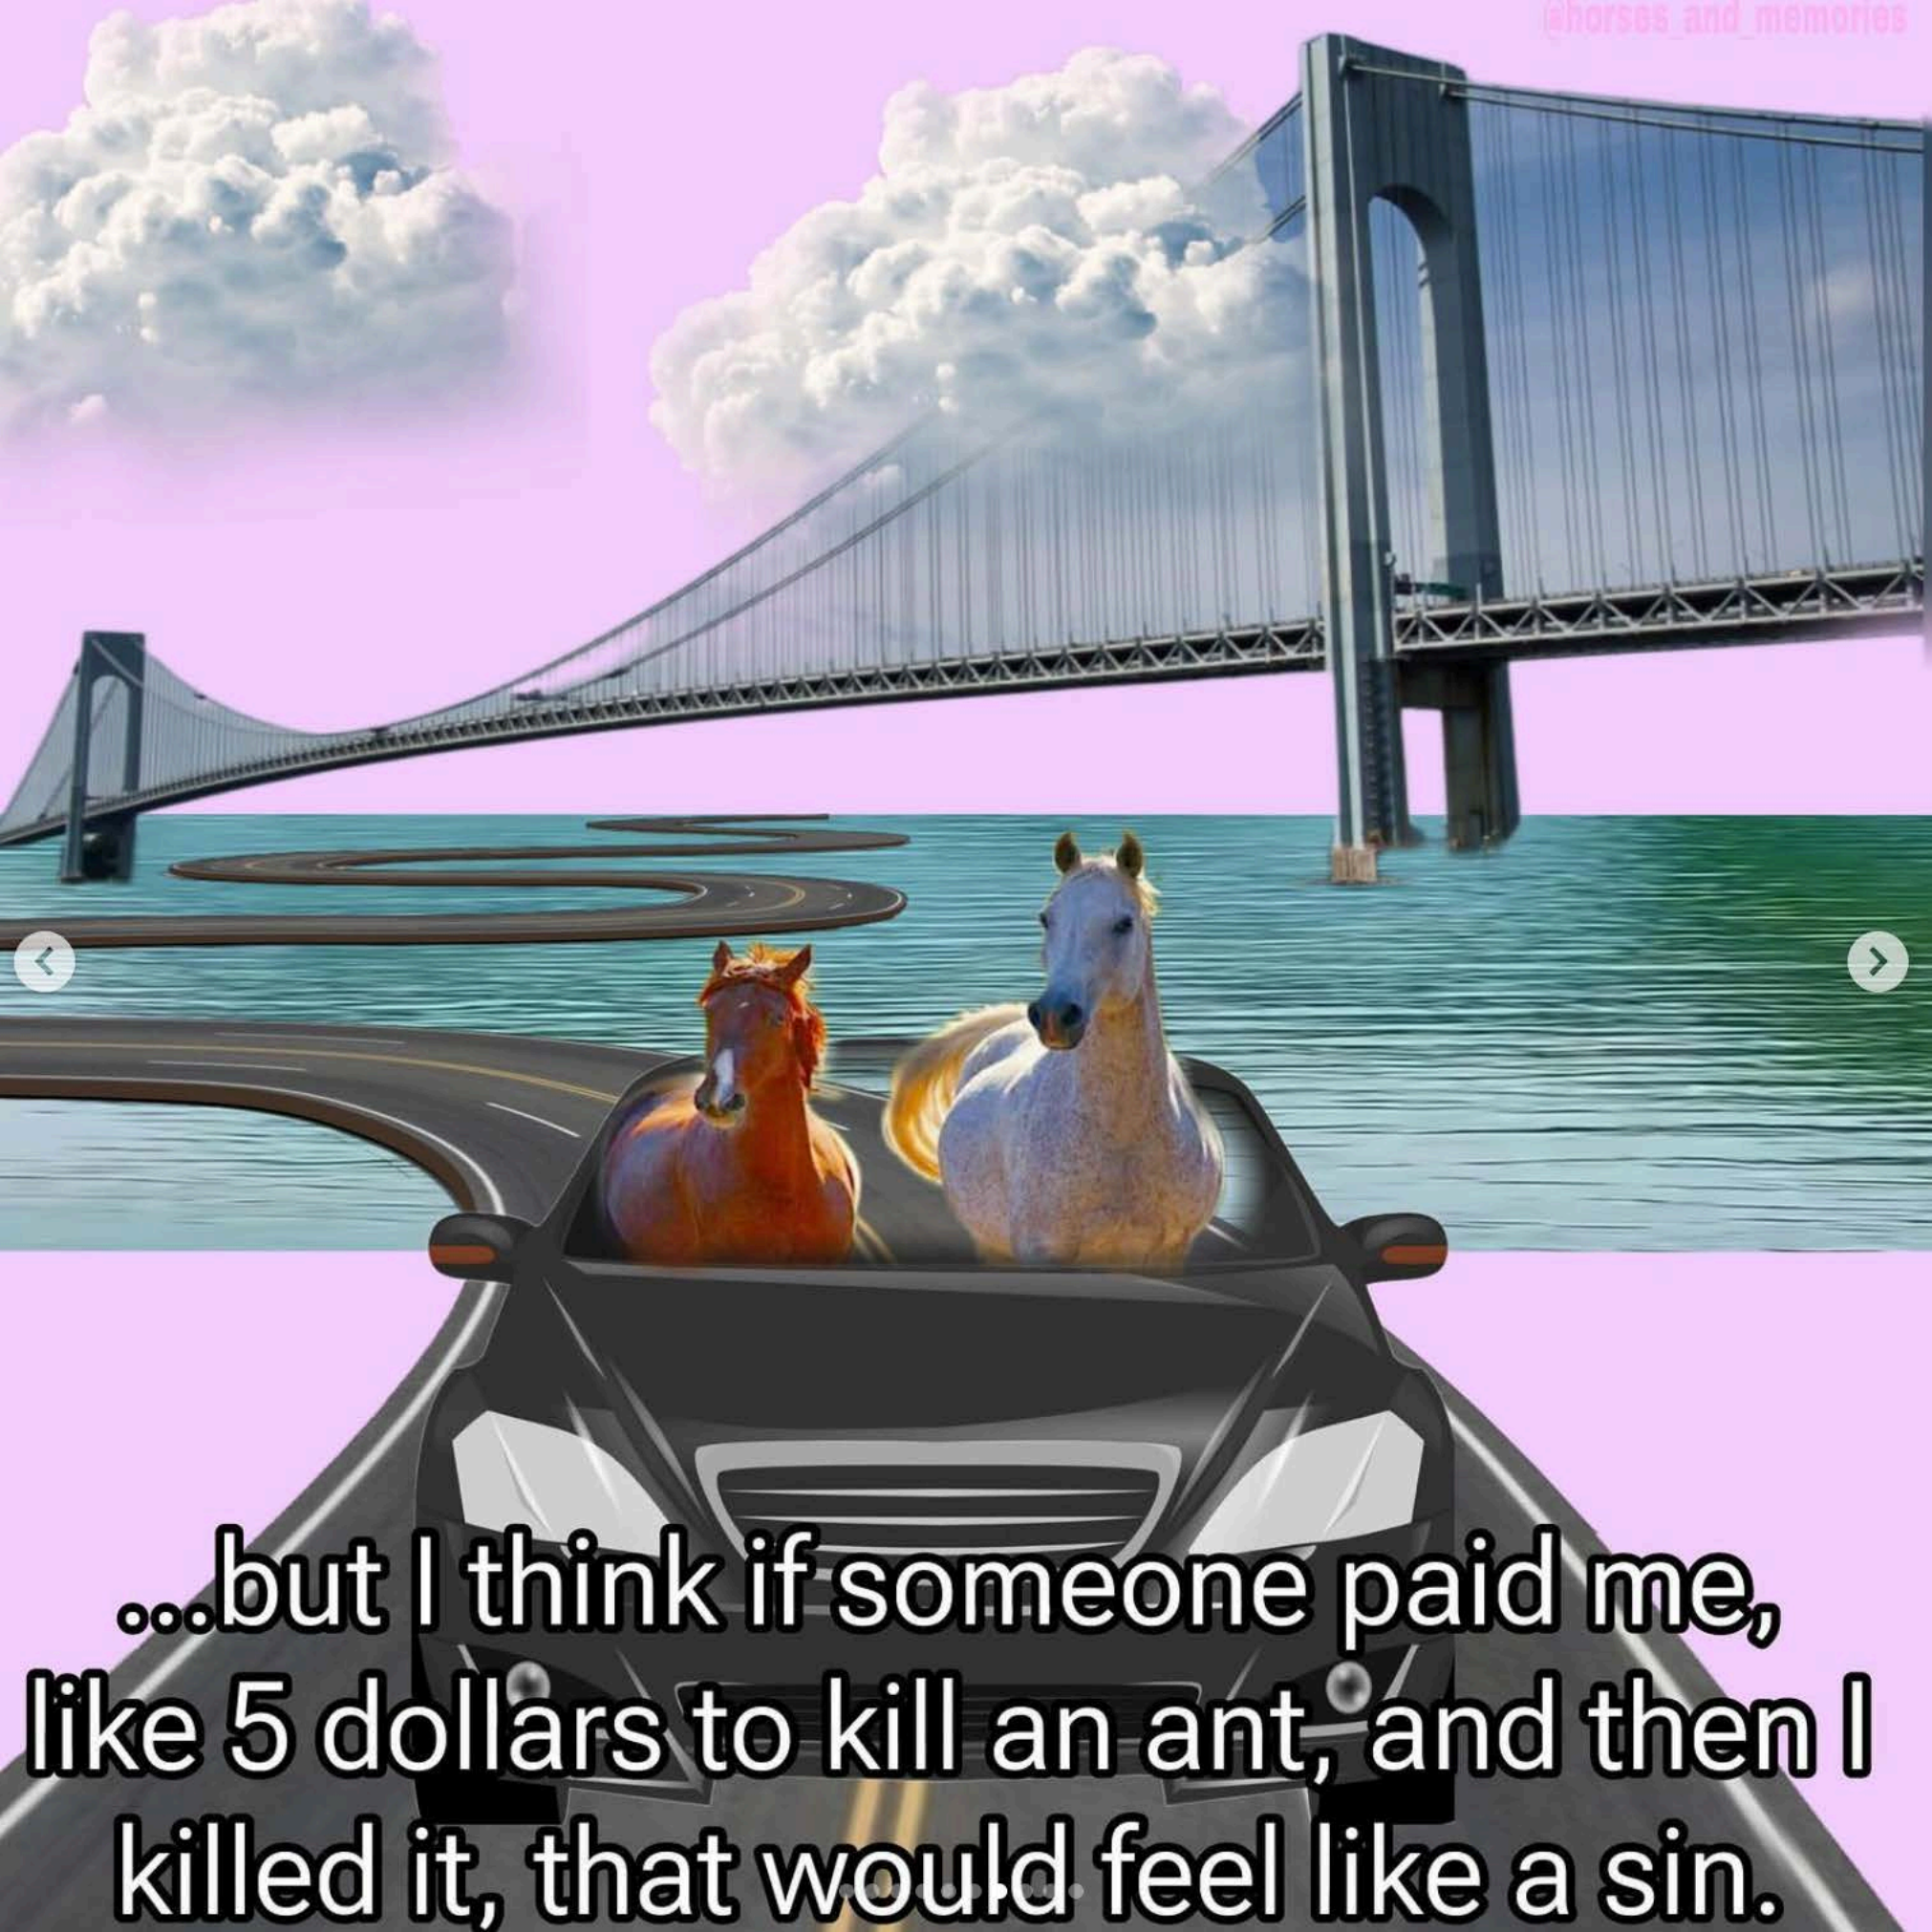

Well if it's a sin to kill, then yes.

I think it's not so bad when I kill an ant when I see it in my room-

-because it's just sudden! I don't even think about it...

...but I think if someone paid me,
like 5 dollars to kill an ant, and then I killed it, that would feel like a sin.

...that would just be cruel! You know because I didn't kill it because I'm scared or because it's in my space but, because someone just wanted me to. Then I'd really have to think about it.

What do you think?
